64. In addition to the matters expressly referred to elsewhere in these articles, the provisions of the Act allow the company, by special resolution: -

64.2 to alter any provision of these articles or adopt new articles of association.

65. For the purposes of these articles (but subject to articles 66 to 69), an "ordinary resolution" means a resolution, which is passed by majority vote (taking account only of those votes cast in favour as compared with those votes cast against) and, as applicable, the Chairperson's casting vote, at a general meeting, providing proper notice of the meeting has been given in accordance with articles 37 to 41.

Written resolutions

66. A written resolution can be passed by the members of the company (having been proposed by either the members or the directors in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act) and will have effect as if passed by the members of the company in general meeting; a written resolution is passed when the required majority of eligible members have signified their agreement to it by sending to the company (in hard copy or electronic form) an authenticated document which identifies the resolution to which it relates and which indicates the member's agreement to it (agreement to which cannot thereafter be revoked), for the avoidance of doubt, the procedures for counting votes at general meetings referred to in clauses 60 and 61 shall apply to the counting of votes on written resolutions
67. For the purposes of the preceding article:-
- 67.1 the reference to "eligible members" is to those members who would have been entitled to vote on the resolution on the circulation date of the resolution (which is either (a) the date on which copies of the written resolution are sent or submitted to the members in accordance with the procedures detailed in Chapter 2 of Part 13 of the Act; or (b) if copies are sent or submitted to members on different days, the first of those dates);
- 67.2 the reference to "required majority" is to the majority required to pass an ordinary or a special resolution under the Act, as follows:-

Office bearers

88. The directors shall elect from among themselves a Chair, a Treasurer, and such other office bearers (if any) as they consider appropriate.

89. For the avoidance of doubt, a director shall not be eligible to hold more than one office referred to in article 88, at any given time.

The office of Chair shall be held (so far as reasonably possible) on a rotating basis, such that during each year the office shall be capable of being held only by directors drawn from a particular community council area, during the next year only by directors drawn from another community council area and so on; the directors shall be free to depart from the principle of a rotating chairperson, however, if circumstances so dictate (whether through the unwillingness of any particular director to hold office as Chair or otherwise).

91. For the purposes of article 90:-

91.1 the period between the date of incorporation of the company and the first annual general meeting shall be deemed to be a year;

91.2 the period between one annual general meeting and the next shall be deemed to be a year.

94.3 may be a director or secretary of, or employed by, or have some other personal interest in, any associated company; and

94.4 shall not, because of his/her office, be accountable to the company for any benefit which he/she derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such company, and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be treated as void on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

95. For the purposes of the preceding article, an interest of which a director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him/her to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his/hers; the references to "associated company" shall be interpreted as references to any subsidiary of the company or any other company in which the company has a direct or indirect interest.

Conduct of directors

96. It is the duty of each director of the company to take decisions (and exercise his/her other powers and responsibilities as a director) in such a way as he/she considers, in good faith, will be most likely to promote the success of the company in achieving its objects as set out in article 4.

97. Without prejudice to the principle set out in article 94, each of the directors shall have a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the company; and, in particular, must:-

97.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the company acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;

- 97.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
- 97.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the company and any party responsible for the appointment of that director
- 97.3.1 put the interests of the company before that of the other party;

- 97.4 ensure that the company complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
98. Each of the directors shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board of directors from time to time; for the avoidance of doubt, the code of conduct shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of directors contained in these articles of association, and the relevant provisions of these articles shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time.
99. The directors shall be entitled, for the purposes of section 175 of the 2006 Act, to authorise (by way of resolution to that effect) any Conflict Situation that may arise (such that the duty of the director concerned, under that section, to avoid conflicts of interest is not infringed) and to amend or vary any such authorisation; the directors may give such authorisation subject to such terms and conditions as they may consider appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.
100. For the purposes of article 99, a "Conflict Situation" means any situation or matter (other than one which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest) in which any director has or could have a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly might conflict, with the interests of the company; and such that
- 100.1 the situations and matters which fall within this definition may include (without limitation) (a) a situation where a director of the company becomes an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative of a body which is a party to a significant contract with the company (or which is competing with the company in the context of any grant application) and (b) any such situation or matter which relates to the exploitation of any property, information or opportunity (irrespective of whether the company could take advantage of the property, information or opportunity);
- 100.2 "conflict of interest" for this purpose includes a conflict of interest and duty, and a conflict of duties.
101. For the avoidance of doubt, article 99 shall not apply to a conflict of interest arising in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the company; any conflict of interest of that nature shall be governed by the provisions of articles 94 and 95 and articles 122 to 126 and the code of conduct referred to in article 96.

103. The directors may be paid all travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of directors, general meetings, meetings of committees of directors or otherwise in connection with the carrying out of their duties.

Powers of directors

104. Subject to the provisions of the Act, these articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the company.
105. No alteration of these articles and no direction given by special resolution shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given.
106. The powers conferred by article 104 shall not be limited by any special power conferred on the directors by these articles.
107. A meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.

111. The quorum for the transaction of the business of the directors shall (subject to article 112) be as follows:
- 111.1 if the total number of directors in office is an even number - 50 % of the total number of directors in office plus one;
- 111.2 if the total number of directors in office is an odd number - 50%, rounded upwards, of the total number of directors in office.
112. A quorum will not be deemed to be constituted at any meeting of directors unless there are at least 5 directors present at the meeting, representing at least 3 community council areas under article 19.
113. If the quorum required under articles 111 and 112 is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting such a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as may be fixed by the chairperson of the meeting.

114. The continuing directors or a sole continuing director may act notwithstanding vacancies, but if the number of remaining directors is less than the number fixed as the quorum they may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of calling a general meeting.
115. Unless he/she is unwilling to do so, the Chair of the company shall preside as chairperson at every meeting of directors at which he/she is present; if the Chair of the company is unwilling to act as chairperson of a meeting of directors or is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the directors may appoint one of their number to be chairperson of the meeting.
116. A director may participate in a meeting of the directors or a meeting of a committee of directors by means of conference telephone, video conferencing facility or similar communications equipment whereby all the directors participating in the meeting can hear each other; a director participating in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

120. All acts done by a meeting of directors or by a meeting of a committee of directors or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any director or that any of them was disqualified from holding office or had vacated office or was not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a director and had been entitled to vote.
121. A resolution in writing signed by all the directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors or (as the case may be) a committee of directors duly convened and held; it may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by one or more directors.
122. A director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which he/she has, directly or indirectly, a personal interest or duty (unless immaterial) which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the company.
123. For the purposes of the preceding article:-

123.1 an interest of a person who is taken to be connected with a director for any purpose of the Act, shall be treated as a personal interest of the director; and

124. A director shall not be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which he/she is not entitled to vote.

126. If a question arises at a meeting of directors or at a meeting of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairperson of the meeting: his/her ruling in relation to any director other than himself/herself shall be final and conclusive.

Delegation to committees of directors and holders of offices

127. The directors may delegate any of their powers to any committee consisting of three or more directors (with at least one from each community council area); they may also delegate to the Chair of the company or a director holding any other office such of their powers as they consider appropriate.
128. Any delegation of powers under the preceding article may be made subject to such conditions as the directors may impose and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may be revoked or altered.
129. Subject to any condition imposed in pursuance of the preceding article, the proceedings of a committee consisting of two or more directors shall be governed by the articles regulating the proceedings of meetings of directors so far as they are capable of applying.
130. In addition to their powers under article 127, the directors may delegate their powers to any committee consisting of two or more directors (one from each community council area) and such other individuals (who need not be directors or employees of the company) as the directors may consider appropriate; the provisions of articles 128 and 129 shall apply in relation to any such committee, subject to the qualification that the role of any committee formed under the preceding provisions of this article shall be limited (except to the extent that the directors otherwise determine) to the issue of reports and recommendations for consideration by the board of directors.

132. The directors shall (notwithstanding the provisions of the Act) appoint a company secretary, and on the basis that the term of office, remuneration (if any) and other terms and conditions attaching to the appointment of the company secretary shall be as determined by the directors; the company secretary may be removed by the directors at any time.

Minutes

133. The directors shall ensure that minutes are made (in books kept for the purpose) of all proceedings at general meetings, meetings of the directors and meetings of committees of directors; a minute of a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors shall include the names of the directors present, and the minutes of each meeting shall be signed by the chairperson of that meeting.

Accounts

134. The directors shall ensure that proper accounting records are maintained in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
135. The directors shall prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions, or if they otherwise think fit, they shall ensure that an audit of such accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.

means was indeed sent, it shall be sufficient to provide any of the evidence referred to in the relevant guidance issued from time to time by the Chartered Institute of Secretaries and Administrators.

142. A member present or represented at any meeting of the company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

Winding-up

143. If on the winding-up of the company any property remains after satisfaction of all the company's debts and liabilities, such property shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the company but shall instead be transferred to some other charity or charities (whether incorporated or unincorporated) whose objects are altogether or in part similar to the objects of the company and whose constitution restricts the distribution of income and assets among members to an extent at least as great as do articles 8 to 11.
144. The charity or charities to which property is transferred under article 143 shall be determined by the members of the company at or before the time of dissolution or, failing such determination, by such court as may have or may acquire jurisdiction.
145. To the extent that effect cannot be given to the provisions of articles 143 and 144, the relevant property shall be applied to some other charitable purpose or purposes.

146. Every director or other officer or auditor of the company shall be indemnified (to the extent permitted by sections 232, 234, 235, 532 and 533 of the Act) out of the assets of the company against any loss or liability which he/she may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his/her office including, without prejudice to that generality (but only to the extent permitted by those sections of the Act), any liability incurred by him/her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his/her favour or in which he/she is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him/her by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the company.
147. For the avoidance of doubt, the company shall be entitled to purchase and maintain for any director insurance against any loss or liability which any director or other officer of the company may sustain or incur in connection with the execution of the duties of his/her office, and such insurance may extend to liabilities of the nature referred to in section 232(2) of the Act (negligence etc. of a director).
